

Ancient Appia Delight.

Maximize your time in Rome with an E-bike...

Tired of typical boring tours?...Go off the beaten path and come to discover the real roman countryside with us!

-Hop on your FULL SUSPENSION BOSCH E-MTB or FAT E-BIKE to discover the countryside of the city in an easy, efficient and original way.

-Admire The Appian Way the queen of the long roads the first roads of strategic importance of the Roman Empire.

-Visit historic landmarks such as The Mausoleo of Cecilia Metella and the House of Massenzio with no traffic of people or cars.

-Ride along the ancient Roman aqueduct.

-The food has a completely different flavor outside the city, tastes typical products of the Roman countryside.

Your adventure will begin close to St. Maria Maggiore (Meeting Point: Via Antonio Rosmini 22), one of the most beautiful basilicas of Rome.

Pedal on The Appian Way the queen of the long roads , with a Bosch's E-mtb full suspension or with a comfort Fat E-bike! Today Via Appia Antica is a magnificent Natural Park, rich of monuments and treasures, an oasis of tranquility and relaxation discover it! An ideal place for a bike ride and for tasting typical Roman meals, immersed in the spectacular atmosphere among ancient ruins and green nature: one of the most beautiful parks in Rome!!! Ride along the largest ancient engineering work, the great Roman Aqueduct.

An incredible morning spent discovering Rome on an E-bike requires a bit of preparation. Bring your camera, and your smile! Follow us on Instagram and Facebook #esbiketours.

